Mr. Amar Singh

Dear Mr. Singh,

I am pleased to inform you that your generous gift of Free Huey, 2021, by Jenna Gribbon, that you have offered to the New Orleans Museum of Art, was officially accepted by our board of trustees on September 22, 2021.

NOMA is delighted to bring Jenna Gribbon's Free Huey into the museum's collection. This work offers a powerful reflection on women and identity in the age of social media, and we believe this work will have great resonance with our audiences in New Orleans, not least because it references the story of Huey P. Long, who was from Monroe, Louisiana. We thank you for bringing such an important work into the collection, which references the history of the American South, but speaks also to much broader global concerns.

Enclosed, please find two signed copies of our standard Deed of Gift form. Please sign both copies and after having your signature witnessed by two other persons, return one copy to me using the enclosed pre-stamped envelope, keeping the other for your files.

NOMA's trustees and the curatorial staff join me in thanking you for your contribution and generosity.

Warm regards,

Susan M. Taylor
The Montine McDaniel Freeman Director
